The R.W.I. met at the home of Mrs. W. Swingle on March 10th. The meeting was carried on in the form of a St. Patrick's afternoon. Irish songs were sung and the roll call responded to by each member telling an Irish joke, some of which were very amusing.

Previous to this meeting Mrs. D. O. Swingle sent out invitations to members and friends accompanied by green silk bags, into which each person was to place one cent for each year of her age, for the purpose of helping to purchase a community piano.

Mrs. O. O. Swingle gave a paper which was very enlightening on rules and laws governing immigration, and was highly appreciated by all present. A presentation was made to one of the members who will be leaving the district shortly. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and the meeting closed with "God Save The King."

Suppression Of Crime

In freedom from serious crime Canada enjoys a good name and reputation which is in striking contrast to that of its great neighbor, the United States. It is a name and reputation which Canadians should jealously guard and carefully refrain from policies and actions which would in the slightest degree lower the standard so long maintained in this Dominion. A word of warning is in order because signs are not lacking of a tendency to grow somewhat lax in the matter of law enforcement.

In the United States crime has become a national menace, and in many respects the law has broken down. So serious has the situation become that responsible officials and nation-wide organizations, including the legal profession, are alarmed, and are looking about for some effective means of checking the reign of lawlessness and violent criminal acts now recognized as a national disgrace as well as danger, and which places the United States in an unenviable class by itself among the nations of the world. The rising tide of crime is now admitted to be one of the United States' greatest problems.

A study of some of the causes of the condition now existing in the United States may be of value to Canadians in safeguarding themselves and their country from the development of a similar state of affairs here. But first let us consider a few figures.

In 1922, 9,500 persons were killed in crimes of violence in the United States. In 1923, the number was 10,000, and in 1924 it had risen to 11,000. Compare these figures with England and Wales. In 1923 there were 58 murders committed in all England and Wales, and 93 homicides other than murder, a total of 151 as compared with 389 that same year in Chicago alone and 10,000 in the United States. The population of England and Wales at that time was 38,000,000 and of Chicago slightly less than 3,000,000. London and New York have approximately the same population, but London had just 42 murders in 1923 as compared with New York's 262. In 1923 more than twelve times as many people were robbed in one United States city alone, Chicago, as in all the Dominion of Canada.

The difference between the British and Canadian judicial systems, with judges appointed for life, and the United States system of judges chosen by popular election, is one cause of weakness across the line. But the chief factor in the increase of crime in the United States is undoubtedly the lack of law enforcement. In many of the large U. S. cities crime has become a well organized business. Many lawyers clever, but utterly unscrupulous, make it their business to defend the criminal class. They can command big fees, and they take full advantage of every twist and quirk in the law to get these law breakers off. Partisan elected judges, and politically chosen district attorneys, and a politically administered police force, cannot successfully cope with these lawyers, backed with unlimited resources from the criminal underworld.

Lack of law enforcement, and the abuse of the parole system, has resulted in the criminal class holding the law and law officers in contempt. Punishment has few terrors for them, because in the majority of instances they are confident they can beat the law. And they do.

In Canada and Great Britain, criminals have a wholesome respect for the law. They know it will be enforced without fear or favor. But, unfortunately, there has developed in late years a certain sticky sentimentality among people and some organizations for the criminal class. Those entrusted with the suppression of crime have sounded warnings, but many people think only of the criminal and not of the community, and nowadays hardly a murderer is sentenced to pay the penalty of his crime that petitions are not circulated asking for leniency. In view of the high character of Canadian judges, the people may well leave the administration of criminal law to them, especially as they are in full possession of facts unknown to the public at large.

A contributing factor to the rising tide of crime in the U. S. is the ease with which the criminal class, in fact, anybody, can obtain pistols and revolvers. With hardly an exception the cheaper magazines of the country carry scores of advertisements for the sale of pistols. They can be purchased cheaply and as easily as groceries. Yet a pistol has one use and one only—to be used by man against his fellow man, either in the hands of criminal, or by man in defence against a criminal. It is no longer used in war; it is not used in sport. Ninety per cent. of all murders in the U. S. are committed by the use of pistols, yet the appalling fact is that in the year 1921 alone nearly half a million pistols were manufactured in the United States.

Canada should maintain the most stringent laws against the carrying of concealed weapons, and there should be no lessening in law enforcement and in the infliction of adequate punishment upon all convicted law breakers. Criminals have no regard for the rights, property and lives of others; it is the height of folly to bestow unmerited sympathy upon them.

Value of Field Crops

The aggregate value of all field crops in 1925 is $1,159,361,900, as compared with $895,235,900 in 1924. The value for 1925 is the largest since 1920, when the total was $1,455,244,050 and the year 1925 is the first year since 1920 and the war period that the field crops of Canada have exceeded one billion dollars in value.

UTTERLY DISCOURAGED

This Was the Condition of a P. E. I. Woman Before Taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"My illness began," says Mrs. M. J. Ahern, R.R. No. 2, Alberton, P.E.I., when my husband went overseas and I was left with the care of a farm and stock, with no help but that of a young boy. My health broke down and for the first time in my life I became utterly discouraged. I lost my appetite, had no strength, and was ready to have a crying spell any moment of the day, as the work loomed up ahead of me. A friend happened to speak one day of the good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done her and urged me to try them. I had not energy enough, or perhaps confidence enough, to try them, but she would not be denied and sent me three boxes, and by the time I had taken them I knew they were helping me and was anxious for more. I continued taking the pills for nearly six months and by that time I had safely passed a critical period in my life, and regained my usual good health. To all overworked, nerve-racked women—and there are a great many of them—I still say, and at all times, take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I know you will regain your energy."

There are many troubles due to weak, watery blood easily overcome by a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The whole mission of this medicine is to purify and enrich the blood, and when that is done all the varied symptoms of anaemia disappear and good health returns. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any druggist or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Ontario Man Suffered With Kidney and Bladder Trouble

Mr. H. Waldriff Highly Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

Englehart, Ont.—(Special).—"I have used Dodd's Kidney Pills for kidney and bladder trouble. After using a few boxes I felt completely relieved. Was also bothered with a sore back and can honestly say I have not been bothered with any of these symptoms since. Can highly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Mr. H. Waldriff, a well known resident of this place sends us this statement.

Dodd's Kidney Pills simply heal sick kidneys. They relieve Mr. Waldriff because his ailments were symptoms of kidney disease. When the kidneys get out of order they fail to strain the impurities out of the blood and general lassitude and weakness ensues. This condition is not only disagreeable but dangerous as well. The impurities in the blood are the seeds of disease. If they are not removed Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gravel, Dropsy, Diabetes, or Bright's Disease may result.

URGES GRADING OF WHEAT ON PROTEIN CONTENT

Vancouver.—Suggestions for an improvement in the grading of wheat occupied the attention of the Western Canada Development and Unity League, Mayor K. A. Blatchford, of Edmonton, and James Robinson, member of the board of grain commissioners, taking part in the discussion.

On the question of the grading of wheat, Mayor Blatchford described the present system as obsolete. The burden of his complaint was that the system now in use did not recognize the protein content. A change based on protein content would save the prairie farmer millions of dollars. He quoted prices paid at Minneapolis for wheat judged on this basis to show how such a system would be profitable here.

James Robinson, of the grain board, stated that the reason why Minneapolis paid big prices for wheat with high protein content was because the general run of protein content in United States grain was low. The Canadian system of grading was recognized as the best in the world and the advice from British buyers was to stay with it.

"Naturally," interrupted Mayor Blatchford, "the British buyer gets the advantage of the protein content."

"The protein system is not applicable to the export business," continued Mr. Robinson. "There are in the neighborhood of 175 grades at the Winnipeg elevators today that vary in protein content. If we had to separate and show the protein content that would just add to the number of grades. Immature wheat frequently grades very high in proteins. I have seen samples where feed wheat contained more protein than other grades. To grade on the protein system you would have to have the same condition here as exists at Minneapolis."

Appeals To Privy Council

King of Swaziland Protests Against Losing Mountain Strongholds

London.—The King of Swaziland, Sobhuza II, was represented by counsel as an appellant before the privy council recently.

A striking figure in court was the King's attorney-general, whose negro features contrasted strongly with his very new forensic wig. He is quite young, is a graduate of Oxford University, an LL.D. of London University and a member of the English Bar. Although he took no part in the actual argument but left the argument to two eminent English King's counsel, he has been responsible for building up the whole case for King Sobhuza's appeal.

Briefly, the case is that large tracts of mountain strongholds, including the burial place for ages of departed kings of Swaziland, have been illegally taken over, it is alleged, by the Swaziland corporation, a private corporation seeking to develop trade in cattle and Swaziland resources generally.

Reports Are Encouraging

Nearly 1,000 Families Already Accepted For Emigration Under New Scheme

London.—Lieut.-Col. L. C. Last Week In The Alberta Legislature

Minister of Agriculture Deals With the Farming Situation of the Province

Edmonton.—The debate on the address in the Alberta Legislature concluded after a two weeks' discussion. No amendment was offered by the Opposition.

The concluding speaker was Hon. Geo. Hoadley, minister of agriculture, who dealt with the agricultural and health situation throughout the province. The total value of all agricultural produce in 1925 was $255,000,000. The wheat yield averaged 18 bushels, giving a total of 103,000,000 bushels, the second largest in the province's history.

All field crops totalled in value $148,000,000, and forage crops $46,000,000.

Dairying did not make the same progress as in former years, but increased prices kept the value up, the total realized being $23,000,000. Poultry production totalled $8,000,000, egg production being $5,000,000.

Beekeeping was becoming quite an industry in Southern Alberta, 115,000 lbs. being produced last year.

Fodder corn had made remarkable development, Alberta had last year shipped 15,000 horses and 200,000 cattle to the world's markets.

The report of the health department showed that much progress had been made in combatting disease, particularly by the use of anti-toxins, and by travelling clinics and public health nurses. Municipal hospitals were now serving approximately 140,000 of the province's population.

827 mothers received allowances under the Mothers' Allowance Act last year, the total expended being $284,007.09. Amendments would be introduced this year, the effect of which would be to help mothers where the husband was totally incapacitated, and where there were young children.

The government have already introduced thirty-two bills, a number of which have already received second reading.

Most of them are not important, but several deal with matters which will affect the province materially in the future.

A bill for the transfer to the province of its public lands has been introduced in the house. This includes the agreement entered into with the Dominion for the turning over of the natural resources of the province to provincial control. The present subsidy will be continued for three years in lieu of an accounting. The house is practically unanimous with regard to this, and the whole matter is dependent on action which may be taken by the Dominion House. However, it is understood that the bill is agreed to in principle by all parties at Ottawa.

Advocates Spanking Machine to Put Fear Into Minds of Evil Doers

Winnipeg.—R. B. Graham, K.C., crown prosecutor, continued his advocacy of corporal punishment as a deterrent to crime, in an address before the Rotary Club here.

Physical pain, uniformly inflicted and without the desire for revenge, he held to be the only real deterrent to crime. He termed jail sentences a failure and flogging revolting. He advocated the infliction of pain without sentiment and with absolute uniformity by a means of a device similar to "a spanking machine."

He repeated a previous assertion that jails have ceased to operate as places of punishment and have developed into "warm winter quarters for the lazy and schools of crime."

GREAT PROGRESS IS SHOWN IN THE MINING INDUSTRY

Montreal.—Great progress was made in Canada's mineral industry in 1925, according to a report made by S. J. Cook, chief of the mining, metallurgical and chemical branch of the Dominion bureau of statistics at Ottawa, during an address at the opening session of the annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy here.

Reviewing developments of the year, Mr. Cook pointed out that the production of minerals reached a value of $224,846,237, an advance of $15,262,831 over the total for 1924 and well toward the record valuation of $227,859,665 attained in 1920.

Upwards of 64,000 persons find employment in Canada's mining industry, wages and salaries totalling approximately $83,000,000 annually. Investment in Canadian mines amounts to approximately $652,440,000.

Dr. J. A. Allan, professor of geology, University of Alberta, and Lewis Stockett, Calgary, were nominated for the presidency of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy at the first day's session of the twenty-eighth annual general meeting of that body, which opened here.

The meeting was opened by registration, an address of welcome by Mayor Duquette, and the presidential address of T. J. Brown, deputy minister of mines and public works, Nova Scotia.

Claims Prohibition Law Was Violated

Publishing Washington's Beer Recipe A Crime Says Texas Member

Washington.—Action against the editor of The Washington Post for publication of George Washington's beer recipe was demanded of President Coolidge by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas. Publication of the recipe, the Texas representative charged on the floor of the house, constituted a violation of the prohibition law.

Prohibition officials were frankly puzzled over the printing of the recipe, but it was announced at the department of justice that no official cognizance of it had been taken.

One New Membership For League Council

Report Says Germany Alone Will Be Honored For the Present

London.—The latest developments surrounding the meeting of the League of Nations seem to indicate that Germany alone will be elected to a permanent seat on the league council, and that the question of the claims of Poland, Spain and Brazil for similar honors will be left to the meeting of the assembly in September.

Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, is said to have receded from his reported stand in favor of other new permanent memberships than Germany. He would favor, however, giving Spain a seat at the coming session, but this seems out of the question, as it is not believed Germany would agree to such a suggestion.

The correspondent of The Daily Express in Berlin says he learns that Germany has been assured she alone will be admitted to the league council and that other claims must be left for later consideration—perhaps at the September meeting.

Making Use Of Ice Bridge

Two Alien Runners Captured By Border Patrol at Niagara

Niagara Falls, N.Y.—Alien runners are alleged to be using the ice bridge below the falls as an avenue to bring aliens into this country from Canada.

Three men crossed the bridge only to fall into the hands of the border patrol when they climbed a ladder from the bottom to the top of the gorge bank, a distance of 200 feet.

One man escaped and descended the ladder, recrossing the ice jam to Canada as the border patrol men sent a volley of bullets after him.

He is reported to have reached the Canadian side safely.

Thieves Take Priceless Articles

New York.—Thieves who entered the Barton, Price and Willson, Inc., art shop in the Fifth Avenue district, broke several jars made in the fifth century, said to have been "priceless," and escaped with three tapestries valued at approximately $40,000.

WOULD SECURE BASIS OF UNION FOR FARM BODIES

Saskatoon.—A long step forward in the amalgamation negotiations between the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association and the Farmers' Union of Canada was taken at a conference in the board of trade offices here. It was decided that Manitoba and Alberta members of the U. F. of C. shall be members of the United Farmers of Western Canada, Saskatchewan section, until such time as provincial sections are formed in these provinces, when such sections shall have complete autonomy. Another resolution, passed unanimously, expressed the earnest desire of the amalgamation committee to work out a basis of union which shall commend itself to the good judgment of the great majority of members of the two organizations.

Attending the conference were C. H. Burnell, president of the Manitoba wheat pool, who acted as chairman; J. H. Stohman, president of the Farmers' Union; W. M. Thrasher, secretary of the Farmers' Union; L. C. Brouillette; C. H. Harris, A. Bayton, George F. Edwards, president of the S.G.G.A.; C. C. Stolkef, Mrs. A. W. Selby, Mrs. A. L. Hollis, Mrs. McNaughton and G. H. Barr, solicitor for the S.G.G.A., and J. Harvey Hearn, solicitor for the Farmers' Union.

Germany Hears About War-Time Conditions

Secrets of Mutiny in Navy Revealed in Reichstag Speech

Berlin.—Startling revelations with regard to the naval hunger strikes and the mutinous mood prevailing in the German navy in 1917 have just been made by Herr Dittmann, the Socialist deputy, in a long speech delivered before the special committee appointed by the Reichstag to inquire into the causes of Germany's collapse in the war.

Herr Dittmann states that the chief ground of the men's discontent during the so-called "mangel-wurzel winter" of 1916-17 and in the following summer was the bad quality of the food supplied to the crews, and their indignation at the vastly superior rations supplied to their officers.

An incident that occurred on board the battleship Thuringen shows the state into which the fleet had deteriorated. The officers, while at mess one day, were suddenly drenched with water from a hose which was turned on them by an unknown hand, and, despite the closest investigation, the culprits remained undiscovered.

The picture of military Germany which has been revealed by Herr Dittmann has come as a shock to many Germans who had been kept in ignorance of the seamy side of Germany's methods during the war.

Russia Liberates Prisoners

Moscow.—The central executive committee has issued a decree liberating all prisoners in the Far Eastern provinces formerly making up the Far Eastern Republic who are serving terms of a year or less. Sentences of more than a year in this region are commuted by one-third. This action was taken to make available all possible labor so as to strengthen the Russian Far East economically.

Conservative Leader Resigns

Saskatoon, Sask.—Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, M.L.A. for Saskatoon City and leader of the Conservative party in this province, announced that his resignation from the party leadership had been in the hands of the executive of the Saskatchewan Conservative Association "for months." He was quitting the leadership to enter business, he said.

Dominions May Be Represented

London.—The question of the possibility of the dominions being represented in the House of Lords when the latter is reformed was raised in the House of Lords by Baron Strathclyde, who suggested that the Imperial conference in October should provide an opportunity to ascertain the opinions of the premiers of the dominions on this point.

Latest reports show that there are 27,469 women in the federal civil service in Washington.

Poet Visits Winter Carnival

Bliss Carman, the famous Canadian poet, not only loves to sing the praises of the mountains, the wide open space, the soft beautiful snow, but also loves to live the life he sings about so well. Recently he donned the apparel of the men of the west, and attired in comfortable moccasins and woollen socks tramped about to his heart's content in the vicinity of Banff. One day he took a sixteen-mile trip to one of the lakes in the clouds. The famous Canadian poet is here seen with the queen of the Banff Winter Carnival.

Report of Geologist on Didsbury Oil Co.'s Acreage.

(Copy)

Great Falls, Montana,
March 6th, 1926.
Mr. A. McNaughton,
Secretary-treasurer
Didsbury Oil Co., Didsbury, Alta.
Dear Sir:

At the request of Mr. C. T. Eline, I wrote you concerning the Southwest quarter of Southeast quarter of section 1, Twp. 31 north, Rge. 2 west, Montana Meridian. I found that through an error on the part of the party submitting Mr. Eline's request my letter was mis-addressed. I am now writing to cover that deficiency.

I have just completed a very careful survey of the Sunburst Uplift based on well data and surface data, a compilation of work done in the field since the fall of 1921. This survey shows that the forty acres in question is located within the same structural contours as the production of the Rice-Fulton-Ferdig-Big West group, which are the most consistent producers in the Sunburst Field.

There is a local high extending Northwest-Southeast across the section with the axis crossing the forty above described diagonally from Northwest to Southeast. On this local high there are already several good wells from 100 to 650 barrels initial flow. As far as can be determined there are no adverse factors, which might be operative against the productivity of this tract. The major production of the field is on local highs such as that on which this acreage is located.

While, on account of sand conditions, which are impossible to foresee, it is impossible to definitely determine that any given location on a tract will produce it is possible to foretell whether conditions are such that the tract as a whole will produce and we find that the conditions surrounding this tract are very favorable to production, consequently can recommend it highly from a geological standpoint.

Very truly yours,
Grenville G. Howard,
Consulting Geologist,
Sunburst Companies.

RECEPTION GIVEN MR. AND MRS. R. ADAM.

A very happy event of the season was the marriage of Mr. Roy L. Adam of Didsbury to Miss Christine B. Miller, formerly of Spruce Grove, Alberta, which took place on March 2nd, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Thomson, 1328-15th Ave. W. Calgary.

After a short honeymoon spent with relatives and friends at Munson, Alberta, Mr. and Mrs. Adam were welcomed home Saturday evening, March 6th, by about fifty friends and neighbors, who met at the home of the groom's father, Mr. W. C. Adam, and spent a very enjoyable evening. Music singing and games were the order of the program, after which a very dainty luncheon was served by the ladies.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, of which, both bride and groom spoke words of appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam will reside on the old homestead where Roy has lived since 1900. They have the very best wishes of their many friends.

In the Legislature.

Edmonton, March 15.

During the past week the Alberta Legislature has made progress with a number of bills on various subjects.

In addition the Spray Lakes situation was discussed for two days, resulting finally in the passage on Thursday evening of a resolution stating that the House was of the opinion that the Spray Lakes development would not affect the scenic beauty of Banff National Park; that the increasing demands for power in the Province made it necessary that increased power should be immediately available; and that the Government of Canada should assign the province of Alberta the said water power site as a public utility or effectually control and regulate the supply of power in the interests of the people.

The opposition amendment was in practically the same terms but omitting the declaration that the project would not interfere with the scenic beauty of the park.

Premier Brownlee characterized the time spent on debating this amendment as waste, as the resolution and amendment were so alike that it would take a philadelphia lawyer to distinguish the difference between them.

The Provinces action, said the Premier, in putting forward this resolution, was to ensure that the people of the province effectually control this development.

He ascribed the delay in getting the project under way to the Dominion Government, which had refused to issue the Province a license, and only on Wednesday had he had received a wire from Ottawa stating that the Dominion wished that any application for the development of power in the parks area should be in the hands of parliament itself.

The Government was prepared on receipt of a license, to allow the Calgary Power Company to go ahead with the building of a dam at Spray Lakes, and if afterwards the Province decided to operate the scheme as a public utility to buy the dam from the company. If, on the other hand they decided to allow the company to continue, they would be

MUNICIPAL LEGISLATURE

A new Municipal District Act has been before the House this week, and considerable discussion has taken place as to its provisions.

The problem of indigents is a difficult one with some municipalities, and a wish was expressed that the Province assume the care of indigents. Hon. R. G. Reid, in reply said that the problem would be how to raise the money. He believed the indigents could be more efficiently, and sympathetically handled by the local bodies.

The limit of responsibility by municipalities for sick indigents in hospitals was established at $200 per year per patient.

Labor members favored the doing away with the property qualification in municipal elections. They claimed that it was absurd that an individual could be Premier of the Province without a property qualification, and yet couldn't be a municipal councillor.

HAIL INSURANCE ACT

The amendments to the Municipal Hail Insurance Act, dividing the Province into zones with varying rates, and abolishing the surtax, was adopted with very little discussion.

Three Things Determine Whether the Price You Pay for Your Automobile is High or Low—

Check Value For Value

✓ Check the value in the car you buy on the basis of the advertised f.o.b. price. Chevrolet quality, power, appearance, easy riding, dependability and economy provide the reasons why over 2,000,000 people have bought Chevrolet cars.

Investigate the Cash Delivered Price

✓ The purchaser of any automobile pays for freight, tax and handling charges. Chevrolet's low delivered price includes these charges—there is no peddling.

Check Time Financing Charges

✓ The financing charges when buying a Chevrolet on time are the lowest in the world. And these minimum charges include financing and fire and theft insurance. No other charges—no side notes to be signed.

Because of Chevrolet's low cash delivered price and the lowest of financing charges, you obtain the greatest value at the lowest cost, whether you pay cash or buy your CHEVROLET on the GMAC Time Payment Plan.

Advice For Young Mothers

—The Shaw Studio

Hamilton, Ont.—"Before the arrival of my little boy my health was very poor, my back hurt and my nerves were so upset I could not sleep. I grew very weak and miserable and suffered from morning sickness. Finally I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the drug store where I trade, so I decided to try it, and it did me a world of good. It relieved me of all distress in my back, built me up in strength and my nerves did not give me any more trouble. I got along fine the remainder of the time and I had a very strong, healthy baby. In addition to keeping a woman healthy and strong it relieves her of a certain mental strain, from which most women suffer during motherhood."—Mrs. Joseph Curto, 147 Bay St., North. (Picture above.) What is Doing in the World of Radio

An opinion from corporation counsel in Chicago holds that operation of radio loud speaker late at night is disorderly conduct.

The radio crystal receiving set, which confines reception mainly to the nearest broadcasting station, still is the predominant type used in the British Isles.

The newest and most powerful radio broadcasting station in Northern Alberta is being erected in King Edward Park, Edmonton, by the International Bible Students' Association.

Mayor Mitchell, of Windsor, is sponsoring a novel plan for the entertainment of patrons of the principal Windsor parks this summer. He proposes to have installed radio sets with amplifiers. The possibilities are endless and the cost low, the mayor says.

As pastor of the world's only aerial cathedral, which has neither length, breadth or thickness, and is without site or location or latitude of any kind, Rev. Paul Rader, of Chicago, numbers his congregation by the tens of thousands. Rader heads the National Radio Chapter there and every Sunday he conducts day-long services over station WHT, which is under contract for 10 years for this purpose.

MOTHERS WHO HAVE USED

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Always Strongly Recommend Them to Other Mothers

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else—actual experience teaches her that there is no other medicine to equal them for any of the minor ailments from which her baby or little ones suffer. Having found the value of the Tablets in her own home, she is always anxious that other mothers should share her knowledge. That is why Mrs. Creighton White, North Noel Road, N.S., writes the following:—"I have a baby seventeen months old and have given him nothing but Baby's Own Tablets ever since he was a week old. I know of no other medicine to equal them, and it is certainly a pleasure to recommend them to other mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative that regulate the stomach and bowels; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the sickly baby well and happy again. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MARCH 14

LAST WORDS OF JESUS WITH HIS DISCIPLES

Golden Text: I am the way, and the truth, and the life. John 14:6.

Lesson: John, Chapters 14 to 17.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 40:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

Christ the Consoler, verse 1.—"Let not your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me," were the beautiful words which the disciples heard in Christ's last talk with them. They were perplexed and anxious; their hearts were failing them as they approached the last crisis in their Master's life. It was faith in the Father that kept Christ serene and peaceful so near His end, and faith in the Father and the Son would uphold the disciples in that terrible time.

What Jesus said to His troubled disciples He says likewise to us in our times of storm and stress. Here lies the secret of an untroubled heart amid troubled circumstances—faith in a living, loving God and Savior. Let not trouble have dominion over you. Keep yourselves in the love of God and the peace of God shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe. In God!" Forgive us, Master, when we grieve!

Pardon the doubt wherein lurks all despair!

O, God is love, and God is everywhere!

—(Stokely S. Fisher.)

Old Letter Discovered

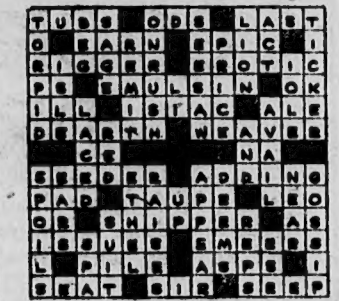

Painted On Silk and Contains 13,000 Chinese Characters

With tragic history attached to it, an old letter has been presented to the Pope by the Vicar Apostolic of Seoul. The letter is painted on silk and contains 13,000 Chinese characters. It was written in 1801 to the Bishop of Peking suggesting plans to save the persecuted Church in Corea. It was intercepted by the police, and both writer and bearer were arrested and killed. Missionaries in China recovered the letter about thirty years ago when the police archives were dispersed.

Earthquake Three Years Ago Believed To Be Responsible

The Japanese Current, which is believed to have somewhat changed its course since an earthquake in Japan in 1923, is forcing fish in Alaska to find new havens, declared a herring fleet operator of Douglas, Alaska. "It is generally believed among Alaskans that the earthquake caused a change in the direction of the Japanese current. This winter, for the first time since 1902, there has not been any snow. Days are sunny, with the temperature ranging around 45 and 50 degrees."

Colds Are Not Necessary Evils

Observance of One Fundamental Rule of Health Protects Against Them

Whether one catches cold easily is largely a question of physical condition. If the general vitality is low, resistance to disease is weak and at such a time a cold is easy to contract and difficult to check.

Constipation is frequently the cause of such a state of health, with its attendant listlessness, biliousness, headaches and a general lack of vitality. Poisons from the waste matter that remains behind after improper, irregular bowel elimination are picked up by the blood and carried to every part of the body. They weaken your resistance to disease. Thousands of people who have suffered from self-poisoning in this way have found that Nujol, the internal lubricant makes bowel elimination sure and easy.

Nujol softens the waste matter and permits thorough and regular elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles. Nujol can be taken for any length of time with no ill effects.

If you take cold easily, ask your druggist for Nujol to-day—and remember, look for the name "Nujol" in red on both bottle and package.

Some Freak Inventions

Queer Things Received At Patent Offices in Washington

Among the useful contrivances that have received patents at the United States patent office at Washington are many freak inventions. One is a hat that insures it being lifted when a man greets a woman. In the words of the inventor, this remarkable headpiece "automatically effects polite salutations by the elevation and rotation of the hat on the head of the saluting party when said person bows to the person or persons saluted."

Another curious patent covers what is called "a useful hat." This hat has two supports one, resting on each shoulder of the wearer, which holds the hat above the head. The inventor contends that this unique chapeau "will permit the free circulation of air entirely around and over the head of the wearer, preventing headaches from the weight of the hat, and allowing free movement of the head independently of the hat."

there was a wild flush in his face that was not altogether the tanning of wind and sun and storm, and a glow in his eyes that had not been there for five years, perhaps never before. His eyes were on Nepeese.

"To-morrow or the next day I am going to Lac Bain," he said, a hard and bitter note back of the gentle worship in his voice. "I will not come back until I have—killed him."

The Willow looked straight into the fire. For a time there was a silence broken only by the crackling of the flames, and in that silence Carvel's fingers weaved in and out of the silken strands of the Willow's hair. His thoughts flashed back. What a chance he had missed that day on Bush McTaggart's trap-line—if he had only known! His jaws set hard as he saw in the red-hot heart of the fire the mental pictures of the day when the Factor from Lac Bain had killed Pierrot. She had told him the whole story. Her flight. Her plunge to what she had thought was certain death in the icy torrent of the chasm. Her miraculous escape from the waters—and how she had discovered, nearly dead, by Tuboa, the toothless old Cree whom Pierrot out of pity had allowed to hunt in part of his domain.

He felt within himself the tragedy and the horror of the one terrible hour in which the sun had gone out of the world for the Willow, and in the flames he could see faithful old Tuboa as he called on his last strength to bear Nepeese over the long miles that lay between the chasm and his cabin; he caught shifting visions of the weeks that followed in that cabin, weeks of hunger and of intense cold in which the Willow's life hung by a single thread. And at last, when the snows were deepest, Tuboa had died. Carvel's fingers clenched in the strands of the Willow's braids. A deep breath rose out of his chest, and he said, staring deep into the fire:

"To-morrow I will go to Lac Bain."

"BAREE, SON OF KAZAN," a Vitaphone Picture, With Wolf, the War Dog is an Adaptation of This Story

Something greater than mere curiosity began to take possession of Carvel. A whimsical humor became a fixed and deeper thought, an unreasoning anticipation that was accompanied by a certain thrill of subdued excitement. By the time they reached the old beaver-pond the mystery of the strange adventure had a firm hold on him. From Beaver-tooth's colony Baree led him to the creek along which Wakayoo, the black bear, had fished, and thence straight to the Gray Loon.

It was early afternoon of a wonderful day. It was so still that the rippling waters of spring, slinging in a thousand rills and streamlets, filled the forests with a droning music. In the warm sun the crimson bakneesh glowed like blood. In the open spaces the air was scented with the perfume of Blue Flowers. In the trees and bushes mated birds were building their nests. After the long sleep of winter Nature was at work in all her glory. It was Unekepesim, the Mating Moon, the Home Building Moon—and Baree was going home. Not to matchhood—but to Nepeese. He knew that she was there now, perhaps at the very edge of the chasm where he had seen her last. They would be playing together again soon, as they had played yesterday, and the day before, and the day before that, and in his joy he barked up into Carvel's face, and urged him to greater speed. Then they came to the clearing, and once more Baree stood like a rock. Carvel saw the charred ruins of the burned cabin, and a moment later the two graves under the tall spruce. He began to understand as his eyes returned slowly to the waiting, listening dog. A great swelling rose in his throat, and after a moment or two he said softly, and with an effort:

"Boy, I guess you're home."

"Even then it seemed quite the most natural thing in the world that it should be Nepeese, and none other."

Baree did not hear. With his head up and his nose tilted to the blue sky he was sniffing the air. What was it that came to him with the perfumes of the forests and the green meadow? Why was it that he trembled now as he stood there? What was there in the air? Carvel asked himself, and his questing eyes tried to answer the questions. Nothing. There was death here—death and desolation, that was all. And then, all at once, there came from Baree a strange cry—almost a human cry—and he was gone like the wind.

Carvel had thrown off his pack. He dropped his rifle beside it now, and followed Baree. He ran swiftly, straight across the open, into the dwarf balsams and into a grass-grown path that had once been worn by the travel of feet. He ran until he was panting for breath, and then stopped and listened. He could hear nothing of Baree. But that old worn trail led on under the forest trees, and he followed it.

Close to the deep, dark pool in which he and the Willow had disported so often, Baree, too, had stopped. He could hear the rippling of water, and his eyes shone with a gleaming fire as he gazed for Nepeese. He expected to see her there, her slim white body shimmering in some dark shadow of overhanging spruce, or gleaming suddenly white as snow in one of the warm splashes of sunlight. His eyes sought out their old hiding places; the great split rock on the other side, the shelving banks under which they used to dive like otter, the spruce boughs that dipped down to the surface, and in the midst of which the Willow loved to screen her naked body while he searched the pool for her. And at last the realization was borne upon him that she was not there, that he had still farther to go.

He went on to the tepee. The little open space in which they had built their hidden wigwam was flooded with sunshine that came through a break in the forest to the west. The tepee was still there. It did not seem very much changed to Baree. And rising from the ground in front of the tepee was what had come to him faintly on the still air—the smoke of a small fire. Over that fire was bending a person, and it did not strike Baree as amazing, or at all unexpected, that this person should have two great shining braids down her back. He whined, and at his whine the person grew a little rigid, and turned slowly.

Even then it seemed quite the most natural thing in the world that it should be Nepeese, and none other. He had lost her yesterday. Today he had found her. And in answer to his whine there came a sobbing cry straight out of the soul of the Willow.

Carvel found them there a few minutes later, the dog's head hugged close up against the Willow's breast, and the Willow was crying—crying like a little child, her face hidden from him on Baree's neck. He did not interrupt them, but waited; and as he waited something in the sobbing voice and the stillness of the forest seemed to whisper to him a bit of the story of the burned cabin and the two graves, and the meaning of the Call that had come to Baree from out of the south.

CHAPTER XXXI.

That night there was a new campfire in the open. It was not a small fire, built with the fear that other eyes might see it, but a fire that sent its flames high. In the glow of it stood Carvel. And as the fire had changed from that small smouldering heap over which the Willow had cooked her dinner, so Carvel, the officially dead outlaw, had changed. The beard was gone from his face; he had thrown off his caribou-skin coat; his sleeves were rolled up to the elbows, and Encourage Children in Essay Work.

Contributed.

The essay contest work has again been taken up in our schools and we are hoping it will prove more successful than ever this year.

Our teachers, we believe, are doing their part; and now we are asking that the parents encourage each child in their home, who is a scholar in grades V and XII inclusive, to take part in this contest. Not alone for the prizes to be given them, but for the knowledge they will receive by studying the different subjects in order to be able to write on them.

Miss McCorkindale, who was a visitor and lecturer in our town last January, was keenly interested in educational matters, especially along the lines of scientific temperance. She paid a high tribute to the influence of the teachers on the rising generation and said, "It is now being recognized the world over, by leaders on educational matters, that every boy and girl should receive the knowledge that will enable them to guard against the custom of using alcohol as a beverage, because they have learned that it tends to lower the standard of their own life and so influences their ideal that it makes them content with a lower standard."

Since the province of Alberta commenced its highway building program under the federal aid plan, the work starting at the beginning of the season of 1924 and continuing during 1925, a total expenditure has been made of $179,505 was spent on the main highway between Calgary and Edmonton.

These and other interesting facts are contained in the annual report of the department of public works just made public.

The total expenditure of $1,735,729 on highways by the province in this period, says the report, "means a possible grant from the federal authorities of approximately $677,000."

"An outstanding feature of the main highways program since its inception in 1924" continues the report, "is the mileage of all weathered roads, constructed, that is, gravel surfacing, which during the season of 1925 amounted to 172 miles, in addition to 29 miles surfaced during the previous year."

During the year, the department also constructed 354 bridges of which 29 were steel and the balance timber. Also, 159 bridges were repaired or refloored.

The year also saw the completion of the Alberta and British Columbia boundary survey undertaken by the commission appointed in 1923 from the international boundary to the north boundary of township 97 a distance of approximately 780 miles. From the north boundary of township 97 to the north boundary of the province, a distance of 175 miles, is still unsurveyed.
